Never the spirit was born; the spirit
shall cease to be never;

Never was time it was not; End and Beginning are dreams!

Birthless and deathless and changeless remaineth the spirit for ever.

The Song Celestial
Sir Edwin Arnold

The Spirit of '70

And so shall the Spirit of '70 follow us through the remainder of this year,
and the many more years to come,
never dying, never changing. We will always remember the good times and the bad, and this spirit will stay with us forever.

*Spirit in Wheeler is carried out
in many different ways.*

It has often been said that a school is only what you make it; you get out of it only what you put into it. Here at Wheeler, we put a lot into everything we do, and we have found our efforts to be rewarding.

LEFT: "But we were thirsty." BOTTOM: "Now what do we do?"

A spirit for education . . .

Wheeler's own motorcycle gang.

Our spirit for education is tremendous. We have put a great deal of time and effort into our studies and have found our minds greatly enriched. We have found a new respect for learning and for those who guide us.

ABOVE: "The Odd Couple"

for social events, . . .

Our spirit for an enlivened social life is shown by our attendance at school functions. We meet and make many new friends at dances, suppers, and even formal events, such as the prom and graduation.

"Did she gyp me?"

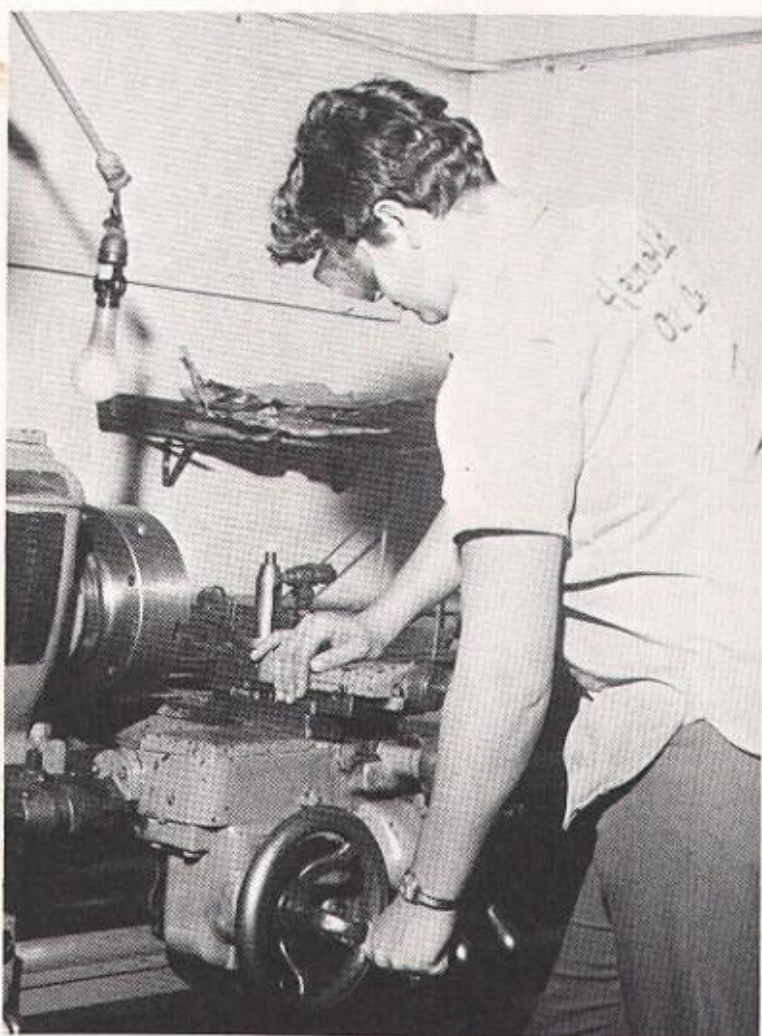

"They can't keep me out."

"Bring on the Cubs!"

and for our school.

TOP LEFT: "How about a date tonight?"
 TOP RIGHT: "Don't I know you from somewhere?"
 BOTTOM LEFT: "I'll get this thing to work sooner or later."
 BOTTOM RIGHT: Another day of hard work begins.

We are proud of and will never relinquish our school spirit. We back our school, not just in time of need, but all the time. Whether at a basketball game or in a contest representing our school, we are proud to say that we are from Wheeler.

ACTIVITIES

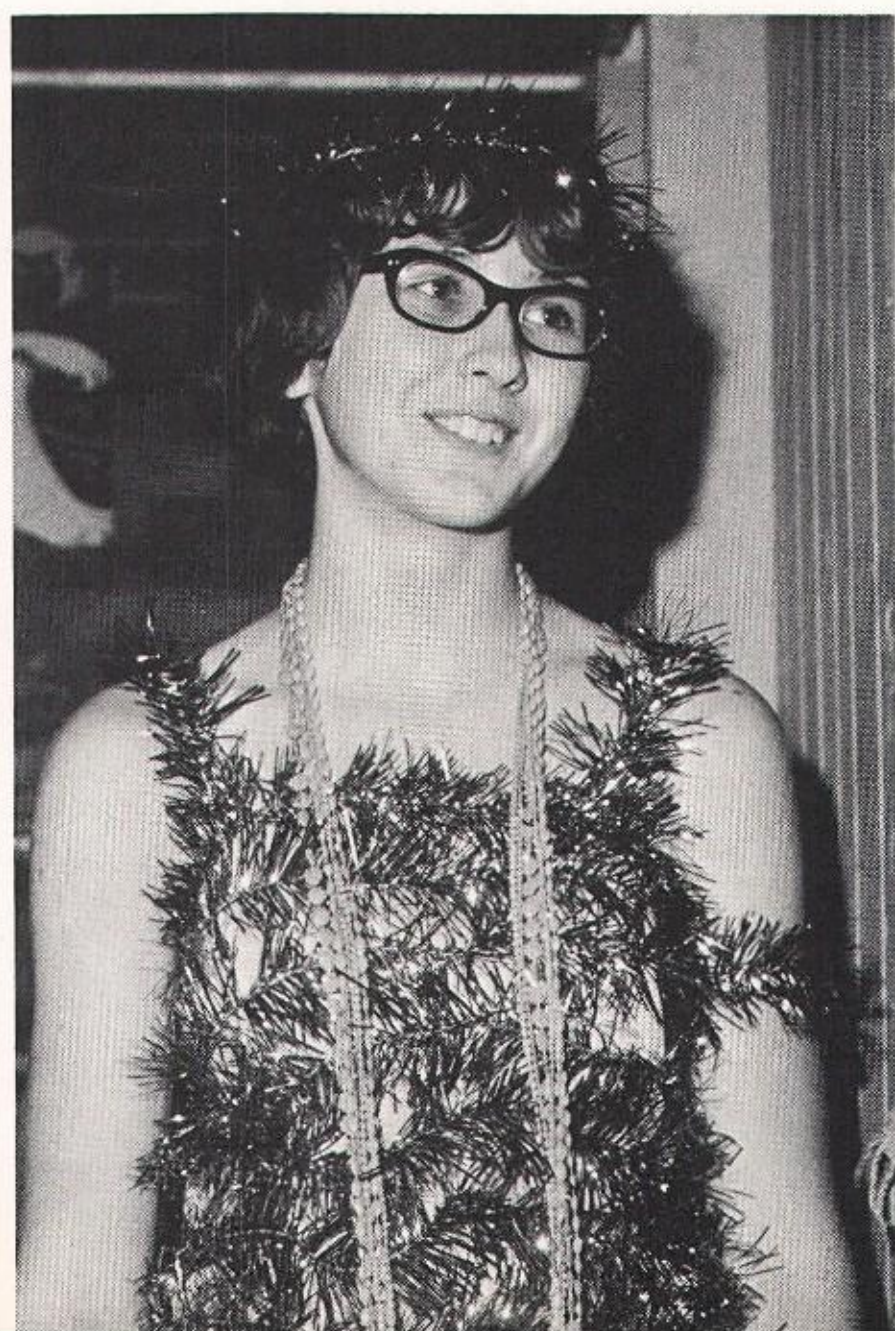

GAA initiation is fun and excitement.

Mismatched clothes, messy make-up, and many ponytails were the main attire of the girls being initiated into G. A. A. After school, the slaves performed many sloppy tasks. After cleanup, they were treated to a delicious meal.

LEFT: A pirate and a pussy cat just don't go together.
 BOTTOM: Lynn Betz makes a pretty flapper.
 BELOW: Clayton Minor enjoys the beat.

Halloween dance is fun as well as spooky.

The G. A. A. sponsored the Halloween Dance. There were many strange as well as fascinating costumes, and prizes were awarded for the best. Music was provided by the Midnight Mass.

Homecoming Queen Diane Horan reigns over her lovely court.

The homecoming was a success--the team won the basketball game over Morgan, and the dance was well attended. The gym was decorated beautifully for a Winterland by Night, the theme of the dance. Candidates for the court were Fern Ankarlo, Diane Horan, Norma Reynolds, and Bonnie Spagna, Seniors; Lois McCray, Janis Reynolds, Anita Spagna, and Monica Spoljaric, Juniors.

County Tourney pep block places second in the cheering competition.

The pep club, faculty, and cheerleaders spent many long hours choosing a theme and working out cheers for the county tourney. Their efforts were rewarded when the cheering block placed second in the cheering competition.

The theme was "Land of the Bear Cats." It was carried out with the fans wearing buttons inscribed with the theme.

Tourney finals for the first time in 21 years.*

LEFT: Les Kiser accepts the runner-up trophy for the Bearcats. BELOW: The pep block placed second in the cheer block award.

The Bearcats made it to the tourney finals for the first time in 21 years by beating Kouts, 78-77 in overtime. The Bearcats were down by 8 with only two minutes to go, but came back to tie it up with a last second shot by Dee Hattabaugh. In the overtime they won on Jon Peabody's last second free throw.

In the finals, the Hebron Hawks proved to be just too much for the Bearcats. They led at all stops and ended the game by beating the Bearcats, 89-63. But it was still a thrilling tourney for fans, players, coaches, and cheerleaders.

Swingin' into the '70's

The Home Economics Department presented another fine style show. The home-ec girls modeled the clothing they had made, from sport clothes to formals. Narrators were Debi Stephens and Sue Shabi, seniors.

Spring starts off with many wonderful sounds.

Many wonderful sounds were heard at the Spring Concert presented by the Music Department. The program began with the Junior Band followed by the choir. The Senior Band closed with a little bit of everything from classical to contemporary music.

"Paris By Night"

"Paris By Night," the Junior-Senior Prom, was held at the Lembke Motor Inn. Class members and their guests were served a roast beef dinner. Afterwards they danced to music by the "Vegetable Reconstruction." The king and queen were Dale Huball and Diane Horan.

A post-prom party was held at Union Center School. Guests played games and danced and enjoyed a meal served by the parents.

The Seniors start off graduation day with a hearty breakfast.

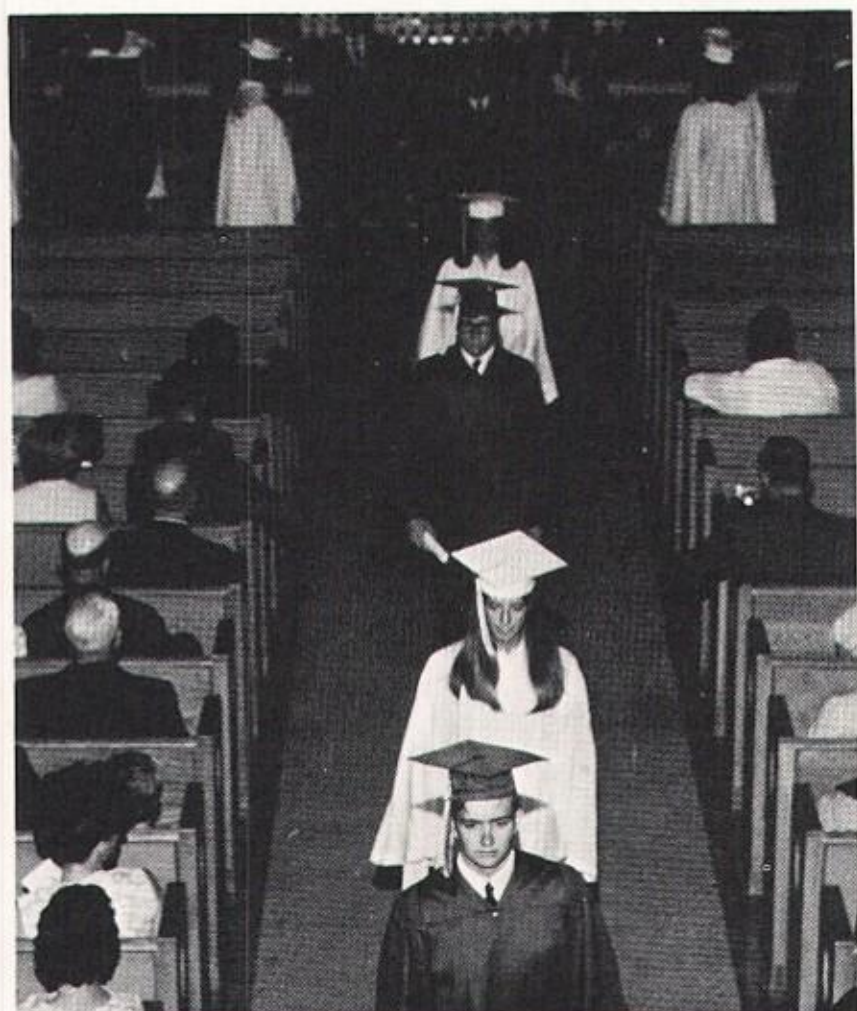

The morning of graduation, the mothers prepared a delicious breakfast for the seniors. The meal served to them and their guests, the faculty, consisted of everything from eggs and sausages to pancakes and sweet rolls. It was a grand way to begin a grand day.

TOP: "What's so funny about breakfast?" RIGHT CENTER: "Eat hearty, boys. This may be your last meal." ABOVE: "All right, Mr. Higbie, let's not eat it all."

Baccalaureate is the first step to graduation.

The Baccalaureate Service was held at the Seven Dolars Shrine in South Haven. The Fr. James Pajkos conducted the ceremony. The high school choir sang GOD OF OUR FATHERS and NOW LET EVERY TONGUE ADORE THEE. The ushers were Lois McCray, Monica Spoljaric, Wayne Powell, and Jon Peabody.

". . . And so we, the Class of '70, receive our diplomas, and go out into the world on our own. We will face life as individuals, solving our own problems and enjoying our own happinesses. We hope we may each find success in our long journey down the road of life."

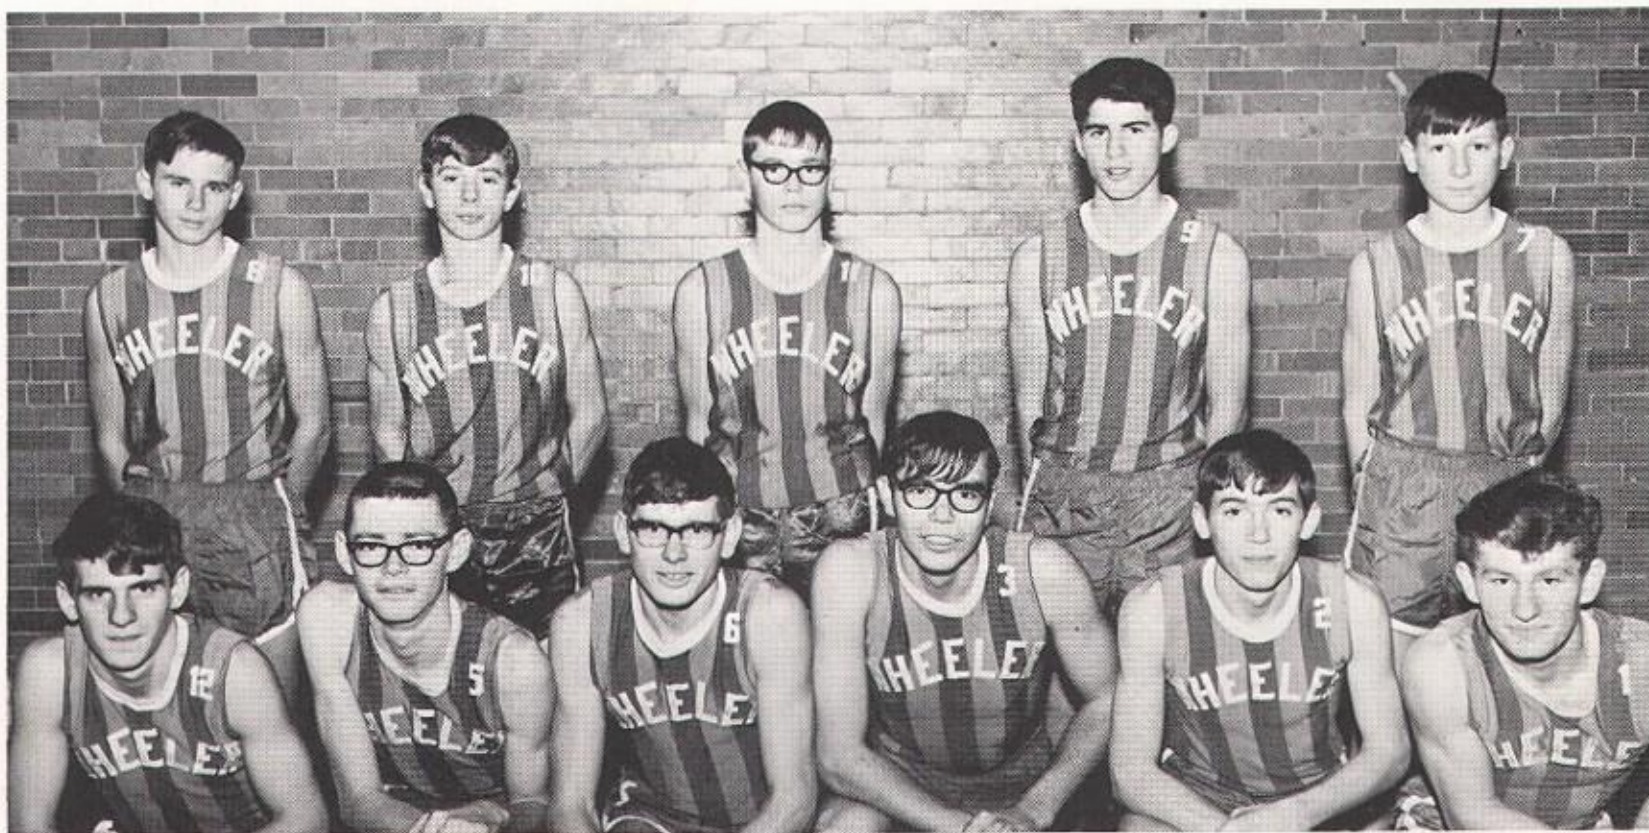

ATHLETICS

Wheeler captures its third county title in cross-country.

The Bearcat harriers made it another fine season in cross-country. They placed second in the round robin held at V. U., and first in the county meet held at Forest Park. The team was coached by Dave Stealy.

Wayne pushes hard to get a good place in the county meet.

BELOW RIGHT: Members of the team watch and hope for any kind of hit.

Although the Bearcats had one of the county's leading hitters in Tom Peabody, .409, their effort to go somewhere struck out as they ended up in the cellar. They played nine games this season and won only three. The team was coached by Al Bradford.

Fine effort, but still Bearcats strike out.

The basketball team kept up a steady diet — loss after loss.

Wheeler's roundballers had only one problem this year-- they couldn't get ahead on the scoreboard. They kept up a steady diet of losing 16 games out of 20. They also ended up last in the conference by losing to all five opposing county schools. But there was one moment of brightness in the schedule when the team beat Kouts in the county tourney to go on and face Hebron in the finals.

Coaches are a main part of an athletic program.

An important part of an athletic program is the coaches behind it. These are the men behind our losses and victories. These men push the boys to practice and to strive for excellence. At Wheeler we have two fine coaches in Dave Stealy and Al Bradford who both did a fine job.

Later, a formal candlelight service was held in which all the girls participated. Over the year, the girls competed in volleyball, basketball, and track. Gymnastics was added to the activities. The annual staff does a great job.

The annual staff had a big job on their hands getting the yearbook done. Many hours were spent during and after school working on it. Many pictures were taken to get just the right ones, and many layouts were done over and over.
